

Individuals Right to Associate is Under Attack

House Bill 4192 sponsored by Rep. Rebekah Warren (D-Ann Arbor) would require anyone doing business, offering membership or any other institution in our State to not exclude someone based on sexual orientation or gender identity. This bill would amend the Elliott-Larsen Civil Rights Act to include sexual orientation and gender identity as a protected class in the State of Michigan and therefore would be subject to the same anti-discriminatory laws as minorities, the disabled, and other individuals listed in this Act.

Simply stated, this bill is a gross violation of our Constitutional rights to associate, or not associate with individuals who support or oppose individual's religious and moral beliefs in the State. To force associations on a person or a group of people with a religious or moral belief opposing homosexuality shows a complete contempt and disregard for individual rights in this State and Country.

Concerned Women for America (CWA) does not support hate toward any group of people, however, we don't believe people should be forced to associate with individuals who oppose their religious and moral beliefs.
